NEWS FROM POOL MANAGER

Soon we will be trading our swimsuits for notebooks, our sunscreen for pens and pencils, but we won't be trading in our 2010 memories from MPS. We've seen a lot of familiar faces this summer even when we didn't have a parking lot. We were blessed with a whole other pool for one week, one more adventurous than the other. The memories were built from swimming lessons to swim team, from open to close, sunshine or not, MPS was always there. We met new swimmers, new lifeguards and of course reconnected with faces of old. We were blessed to be part of your lives this summer. As with all summers 2010 had its ups and downs, but in this roller coaster our excited screams, a feeling of euphoria and utter enjoyment was well worth the long wait, the crowded lines and sometimes questionable music. Thank you each and every one of you. MPS is just a pool without you but with you it's a home away from home. Hope to see you next year!
